

Turner & Cole

Reserve Pinot Noir 2004

As you might expect of a Reserve-level offering, it's much darker, richer, deeper and more powerful than the regular Turner & Cole. And that says a lot, considering the grace, elegance, complexity and class of the "regular" Turner & Cole is utterly compelling. This pinot noir comes from one of Australia's leading pinot noir specialists - and one of James Halliday's very few 5-star pinot noir producers. A legitimate "Reserve" style, and almost luxuriant in its silky, mouth-filling texture. The production was only half that of the regular Turner & Cole.
